'X' POLICY

(formerly Twitter)

Our school motto

Never settle for less than your best.

Our Vision

Following in the footsteps of Jesus, each member of our community will flourish as resilient, respectful and adaptable individuals prepared for life's journey. Along the way we will encourage and inspire each other to continue growing as beacons of light in our own lives and the wider world.

Our Mission Statement

St. George's Central seeks to provide quality education rooted in the Christian faith, serving the spiritual, moral, and educational needs of the community of which it is part.

Aims of using 'X'

St. George's Central CE Primary School and Nursery 'X' accounts will be used and followed principally by staff, parents/carers and other professionals in order to advertise the excellent work by staff, pupils, parents and governors and to celebrate the success and achievements of the children. Similarly, it will also contain information detailing special events in school. The aim of this is to run alongside more traditional methods like sending home letters, the website and text messaging service. Twitter will not be used to replace these current systems. Whilst using 'X', all staff will demonstrate safe and responsible use of social media

'X' control and usage

The uploading of content will be controlled by approved staff. They alone will be responsible for password protection and uploading of content. St George's Central Primary School 'X' accounts will mainly post between the hours of 8am and 6pm between Monday and Friday. Other posts may be sent outside of this time such as school events (e.g. football matches, residential trips, performances) or to share urgent school news (e.g. closers due to adverse weather). To keep parents/carers and followers up to date with school based events, staff will aim post on their 'X' account at least once a week. Contact with other 'X' users should be made via post replies rather than private messages.

'X' followers

At present, St George's Central Primary School 'X' accounts are open to all followers. However, we reserve the right to block accounts deemed inappropriate or offensive to ourselves and/or others. Staff wishing to follow St George's Central Primary School 'X' accounts may do so as long as their 'X' account is secure and private. Under no circumstances should staff members follow parents/carers or students. Professional accounts should be used to advertise the school in a positive light and promote useful information to their followers.

In order to protect ourselves from inappropriate content being distributed into our news feeds, St George's Central Primary School accounts will not actively seek to follow other users. However, exceptions may be made where following a @handle which has benefits to the school such as a children's author or an educational account. Once again, these will be decided on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the user. The 'X' account should be used more as a distributor of information to those who follow it and not as a receiver of information.

Inappropriate content and referencing

St George's Central Primary School 'X' accounts welcomes any referencing, mentions, or interactions that show the school in a positive light only. Therefore, St George's Central Primary School deems any of the following as inappropriate:

- Offensive language or remarks aimed at the school, its staff, parents, governors or others affiliated with the school.
