¿Quiénes son los miembros de tu familia?

(Who are the members of your family?)

Main questions and replies:

¿Cómo es tu familia? –

What is your family like?

¿Cuántos hermanos tienes?

How many brothers and sisters do you have?

En mi familia, hay mi madre, mi padre, mis abuelos y mis dos hermanos -

In my family, there is my mother, my father, my grandparents and my two siblings.

Vivo con mi tío y mi tía –

I live with my uncle and my auntie.

Tengo dos hermanos – I have two brothers.

Remember:

The Spanish word for brother is 'hermano' and the word for sister is 'hermana'.

If you have more than one brother, you would pluralise this and say 'mis hermanos' (my brothers). If you had more than one sister, you would say 'mis hermanas' (my sisters), however if you had a mixture of brothers and sisters, you would still refer to them using the masculine (hermanos).

If you haven't got any brothers or sisters, you can say;

No tengo hermanos.
